

NPC Bios

District 16

Brooke Horgan

Brooke Horgan has lived in Bronxville for ten years with her husband, Hunter, and their three children, who attend the Bronxville High School, Middle School, and Elementary School. She works at J.P. Morgan in the Wealth Management Division. Brooke grew up outside of Philadelphia, attended Episcopal Academy, graduated from Princeton University with an A.B. in Geosciences and Environmental Policy and later earned an MBA from Columbia Business School as a Feldberg Fellow.

Brooke has been actively involved in both the Bronxville community and a number of nonprofit and alumni organizations. She currently serves on the Bronxville Elementary School Lecture Series Committee, the Princeton Annual Giving Committee for the Class of 1999, and as a member of the executive committee at the Weekapaug Yacht Club, where she served as a flag officer and later Commodore from 2018 to 2022. Her past service includes eight years as a BYLA coach, membership on the Jansen Hospice Board, service as Treasurer of the Bronxville Elementary School, and a term on the Reformed Church Board. She has also served on several Princeton reunion and special gifts committees.

Brooke is seeking to serve on the Nominating and Procedure Committee because she would like to become more involved with the School and Board and welcomes the opportunity to get to know those interested in serving as trustees. She looks forward to helping promote candidates to the community and, if needed, recruiting residents to run for Board positions. As with any volunteer opportunity, she also values the opportunity to work with fellow NPC members and strengthen connections within the Bronxville community.

Christina Ma

Christina Ma and her husband, Ryan Mott, have lived in Bronxville for four years and are the parents of three children, two currently attending Bronxville Elementary School and a third who will join them in the 2026–2027 school year. She has been actively involved in education and public policy throughout her academic and professional career. She serves on the Advisory Council of Columbia Law School's Center for Public Research and Leadership and currently chairs both the American Bar Association Antitrust Law Section Technology Committee and the New York State Bar Association Mergers Committee. She has also dedicated significant time to pro bono work supporting women and children.

She earned dual bachelor's degrees in Economics and Public Policy from Brown University and a J.D. from Columbia Law School. Her long standing interest in education policy began with her undergraduate thesis on the No Child Left Behind Act and continued in law school, where she helped establish the Center for Public Research and Leadership, focused on K–12 education reform.

She believes the work of the Non-Partisan Committee is essential to maintaining the excellence of the Bronxville School District. She values the NPC's commitment to identifying and supporting highly qualified trustee candidates and sees service on the committee as an opportunity to contribute to the district's continued success through strong governance, thoughtful community engagement, financial stewardship, and educational leadership. She would be honored to support the NPC's mission and help ensure that Bronxville's schools continue to thrive for future generations.

Danielle Rasamny

Danielle ("Dani") Rasamny has lived in Bronxville for nearly six years and, together with her husband, Rob, has family ties to the Village dating back more than seventy years. Beginning this fall, all four of their children—three sons and a daughter—will attend The Bronxville School.

Dani held leadership roles across Marketing and Brand Management, Strategy, and Operations at both GEICO and American Express. She graduated magna cum laude from Duke University with a degree in Psychology and Business and earned an MBA from the Darden School of Business at the University of Virginia.

Since moving to Bronxville, Dani has focused on becoming deeply involved in the community. She has served as Special Projects Chair and Board Chair of the Reformed Church Nursery School Parent Board, as well as a Class Parent and Grade Chair for the Bronxville School PTA. She currently serves as Chair of the Elementary School Council within the Bronxville School PTA and is a board member of Jansen Hospice and Palliative Care.

Dani is passionate about supporting The Bronxville School and the broader Village community. Through her professional leadership experience and years of volunteer service, she has developed a collaborative approach to bringing people together, building consensus, and advancing shared goals. She believes this has prepared her well for service on the Nominating and Procedure Committee. Most recently, her role as Chair of the Elementary School Council has provided the opportunity to work closely with school leadership and members of the Board, further strengthening her interest in helping identify, evaluate, and recommend future trustees. With all four of her children attending The Bronxville School this fall, she views service on the NPC as a meaningful way to contribute to the continued strength and success of the school and community she cares deeply about.

District 17

Andre Sigourney

Andre Sigourney and his wife, Maria, have lived in Bronxville for the past three years and are the parents of three daughters, currently in 8th, 6th, and 3rd grades. They chose Bronxville because they wanted their daughters to grow up in a community where education, character, and civic engagement are core values, and have developed a deep appreciation for how much of the Village's success comes from generations of residents volunteering their time and expertise to preserve and strengthen its institutions.

Andre is Vice President of National Leasing at Sky Harbour Group and co-founder of Ramo Properties. He earned a B.A. in Philosophy and Political Science from Syracuse University and an M.S. in Real Estate Finance and Development from NYU's Schack Institute of Real Estate. His commitment to education began during five years living and teaching English in Costa Rica, where he created English language and teacher training programs designed to expand opportunities for underserved communities. He currently serves on the Board of Kwenda Collegiate Girls Charter School and has also supported community development initiatives through the Flatbush Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District and Habitat for Humanity.

Andre's interest in serving on the Non-Partisan Committee is rooted in a longstanding belief in the transformative power of education. As the father of three daughters, he feels personally invested in preserving and strengthening the institutions that make Bronxville such a special place. He deeply values the non-partisan nature of the Committee and believes great schools are sustained by communities that come together around shared values, thoughtful leadership, and a commitment to doing what is best for students. He believes his experiences in educational service, board leadership, and professional leadership would allow him to contribute thoughtfully to the NPC's important responsibility of identifying and supporting exceptional candidates for the Bronxville Board of Education. He would consider it a privilege to help support the thoughtful, non-partisan process that has helped sustain the excellence of the Bronxville school community.

District 18

Ingrid Cullen

Ingrid Cullen and her husband, Jed Cullen, have lived in Bronxville for the past four years and are the parents of three young children, one currently attending Bronxville Elementary School and two enrolled at Reformed Church Nursery School. Since moving to Bronxville, Ingrid and her family have experienced firsthand the strong sense of community that makes Bronxville such a special place to live and raise a family.

Ingrid is a leader in Customer Success at Betterworks and a graduate of Pomona College. She currently serves as Parent Outreach Co-Chair on the Reformed Church Nursery School Parent Board and is an active member of the Reformed Church of Bronxville, where she has also served on the nominating committee for the church's Consistory. She strives to bring a fair, open-minded, and collaborative approach to everything she does, believing that strong outcomes come from thoughtful discussion and careful consideration of diverse perspectives.

As a parent of a child currently in Bronxville Elementary, with two younger children who will follow, Ingrid is invested in the long-term success of the school and the community that supports it. She believes the school's continued strength depends on thoughtful, engaged community members who are committed to identifying and supporting strong school board leadership. While relatively new to the community, she has developed a deep appreciation for what makes Bronxville special and would welcome the opportunity to serve on the Non-Partisan Committee and help ensure that Bronxville Schools continue to thrive for current and future students.

Mary Angela ("Micki") Kennedy

Mary Angela Kennedy (Micki") and her husband, Donald Kennedy, have lived in Bronxville for 54 years. Their daughter attended The Bronxville School from kindergarten through twelfth grade and graduated from Trinity College. Their son attended The Bronxville School through tenth grade before completing high school at Phillips Exeter Academy and later graduating from the University of Virginia. Mary Angela is an active member of St. Joseph's Church.

Mary Angela recently retired after a 38-year career as a teacher at The Bronxville School. She earned a Master of Education degree from the University of Virginia's Curry School of Education. Her long association with the district has given her familiarity with Bronxville Schools both as an educator and as a parent.

Mary Angela is interested in serving on the Non-Partisan Committee because she knows the Bronxville Schools well and wants to be helpful. She believes her experience can be helpful to the NPC and would welcome the opportunity to continue serving the community she has called home for more than five decades.

District 19

Cady Stone

Cady Stone and her husband, Peter, have lived in Bronxville for nearly eight years and are the parents of three children, currently in third grade and first grade at Bronxville Elementary School and Pre-K at Reformed Church Nursery School. They are active members of the Bronxville community and members of the Bronxville Field Club.

Cady is a full-time parent and a graduate of Hobart and William Smith Colleges. Prior to staying home with her children, she worked in the Advancement Office at The Spence School and in development and communications at EMpower – The Emerging Markets Foundation. She currently serves as President of the Reformed Church Nursery School Parents Association Board, having previously served as Fundraising Chair and Auction Chair. She is also Head Coach of RCB Hoops 1st Grade Girls, Assistant Coach of BYLA 1st Grade Girls, and has volunteered with Bronxville Elementary through the Dollar Raffle, Book Fair, and as Kindergarten Chair.

After several years of volunteer leadership in the community, Cady has developed a strong appreciation for the people who quietly help keep Bronxville the special place that it is. She believes the NPC plays an important role in ensuring that the school district continues to benefit from thoughtful, capable, and unbiased leadership. She enjoys getting to know people, learning from others, and thinking about the future of the school district. She is interested in helping cultivate strong leadership by encouraging talented individuals to serve and helping residents feel confident in those elected to the Bronxville School Board. Serving on the NPC feels like a meaningful way to give back while helping preserve and strengthen one of the things that makes Bronxville such a special place to raise a family.

District 20

Bob Devereux

Bob Devereux attended Bronxville Schools from kindergarten through twelfth grade and, together with his wife, Lindy, has been back in Bronxville for the past 14 years as a parent. Their three children have attended the Bronxville School. Having experienced the Bronxville School both as a student and as a parent, Bob has a longstanding connection to the community.

Bob's career in software development has included technical leadership roles at fintech and healthcare startups, as well as seven years at Amazon. He is a graduate of Bronxville High School and earned a Bachelor of Science in Operations Research from Cornell Engineering. For the past 12 years, he has served as a trustee of the Lavelle School for the Blind in the Bronx, which serves visually impaired students with multiple disabilities.

As a Bronxville alumnus and current parent, Bob would like to serve on the Non-Partisan Committee to give back to the school district that his family and he have benefited from. His experience serving on the Board of the Lavelle School for the Blind has helped him understand the issues a board is responsible for and what makes a successful school board and administration. He would welcome the opportunity to contribute those experiences to the NPC.

Andrea Wylie

Andrea Wylie and her husband, David, have lived in Bronxville for the past nine and a half years and are the parents of two children, currently in sixth and third grades at The Bronxville School. They moved to Bronxville in 2017 and chose it primarily for the school district. Over the last decade, they have made it their family's home.

Andrea is a Teacher Assistant at the Eliza Corwin Frost Child Center and previously served as Co-Chair of the Parents' Committee there. She earned a degree in English Language and Literature from the University of Liverpool and a Postgraduate Certificate in Education from the University of Oxford. She taught English at a middle/high school in the Cotswolds, England, and later worked for an educational technology company. In 2024, she resumed her career in education and has just completed her second year working with preschool children at Eliza Corwin Frost. She absolutely loves working in early childhood education.

Andrea is passionate about education and knows its transformative impact on her own life. With a son in the Middle School and a daughter in the Elementary School, she would be honored to serve her community on the Non-Partisan Committee and make a contribution to the continuing standards of excellence at The Bronxville School.

District 21

Joanna Mancuso Zimbaro

Joanna Mancuso Zimbaro has been a Bronxville resident for six years. She and her husband, Frank, moved to the village in February 2020 with a focus on their children's future education and have enjoyed watching them begin to thrive within the community. Their daughter is a first grader at Bronxville Elementary School, and their younger child currently attends preschool and will begin Pre-K 3 at St. Joseph's in the fall.

Joanna is a freelance event planner and full-time mother. She earned a bachelor's degree in Hospitality Business Administration with a minor in Culinary Arts from SUNY Delhi. From 2021 to 2023, she served on the Midland Gardens Board, contributing to the life of the community and building relationships with fellow residents.

As a parent of a current Bronxville student and another child who will enter the school system in the coming years, Joanna is interested in serving on the NPC to help identify Board of Education candidates who reflect the values of the Bronxville community. She believes that as education continues to evolve and differ from previous generations, it is important to focus on strong individuals who can guide the Board toward consistent, positive change. Joanna and her family are grateful for the opportunities provided by The Bronxville School and look forward to supporting the success of all students and families in the years ahead.

Danilo Silva

Danilo Silva has lived in Bronxville for nine years with his wife, Fabiana, and their two children, who attend The Bronxville School. He is a physician, specialized in Neurosurgery, and serves as Director of Neurosurgery at Phelps Hospital, part of Northwell Health. Dr. Silva earned his medical degree in 2006 and completed his neurosurgery residency in 2011, both of them in Brazil. He then completed subspecialty training in Cleveland, Ohio, at Cleveland Clinic in 2017 prior to moving and establishing himself with his family here in Bronxville.

In addition to his professional responsibilities, Dr. Silva has been active in the local community as a basketball coach at St. Joseph's, where he has enjoyed working with and mentoring young people.

Dr. Silva is seeking to serve on the Nominating and Procedure Committee because he would like to give back to the community and help strengthen the foundation of Bronxville's educational system and its schools. He believes that supporting strong leadership is an important way to ensure the continued success of the Bronxville School and the community it serves.

District 22

Donald Bringle

Donald Bringle has lived in Bronxville for 12 years. He and his wife have 2 children in the Bronxville High School (11th Grade), and have attended the Bronxville School since Kindergarten.

Don has served as a member of RCB Consistory and Committees, the NPC, and Bronxville After School Club ("BASC"). Don is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, and has a MS from the University of Southern California.

Don wishes to serve on the NPC because "I support the NPC process, having served on the NPC before. I think the process provides the BXV Community a valuable service. The Board of Education and the School benefit from the NPC and its outcomes."